

Information Disclosure Policy for Global Foundation of America

The Global Foundation of America ("the Foundation") is committed to transparency, accountability, and responsible communication with the public, stakeholders, and regulatory authorities. This Information Disclosure Policy outlines the principles and procedures for disclosing information related to the Foundation's activities, financial status, governance, and impact.

Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that all disclosures are accurate, timely, and in compliance with applicable laws and regulations, fostering trust and confidence among donors, partners, beneficiaries, and the public.

Scope:

This policy applies to all information related to the Foundation's operations, including financial reports, project updates, governance structures, policies, and other relevant disclosures.

Principles:

Transparency: The Foundation shall disclose pertinent information openly, ensuring stakeholders are well-informed about its activities and financial health.

Accuracy: All disclosed information shall be truthful, complete, and verified before release.

Timeliness: Disclosures shall be made promptly in accordance with legal requirements and organizational policies.

Confidentiality: Sensitive information, such as personal data or proprietary information, will be protected and only disclosed when legally permissible and appropriate.

Disclosures:

Financial Reports: The Foundation shall publish annual financial statements audited by an independent auditor and make them accessible to the public.

Project and Program Updates: Regular updates on ongoing projects, including objectives, progress, and impacts, will be shared through reports, website updates, and communications.

Governance and Policies: Information about the Foundation's governance structure, policies, and decision-making processes shall be available to stakeholders.

Legal and Regulatory Notices: Any legal notices or disclosures required by law shall be promptly communicated.

Procedures:

The Communications Department is responsible for preparing and disseminating disclosures.

All disclosures must undergo review to ensure accuracy and compliance.

Sensitive or complex information will be reviewed by legal counsel before release.

Review and Amendments:

This policy shall be reviewed annually and amended as necessary to reflect changes in legal requirements, organizational structure, or best practices.

Conclusion:

The Global Foundation of America is dedicated to maintaining high standards of transparency through responsible and ethical information disclosure, thereby reinforcing trust and integrity in all its endeavors.
